SENATOR HURLEY GIVES SPEECH AT MEETING OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Narrative Covers Subjects Of Law-making and State Budget

In the absence of L. E. Smith, president, F. V. Jones, vice-president, presided at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce, held at the Florence restaurant, April 1.

C. Chrouh, representative of the San Leandro Chamber of Commerce, spoke on the subject of the coming flower festival, which is to be given in San Leandro in September. Niles Chamber went on record as being in favor of this project and passed a resolution to that effect.

F. T. Dusterberry, president of the Centerville Chamber of Commerce, extended an invitation to all members to attend the luncheon meeting in Centerville next Thursday, at which time Sheriff Driver will give a speech.

H. Braun announced that the Parent-Teacher Association, Niles branch, was giving a Dads dinner at the Niles Grammar school, Tuesday, April 1.

On a motion of H. Braun it was voted that a letter of appreciation be written to the California Nursery Company expressing thanks for the tree donated, and planted near the Niles Fire Department headquarters, by Niles Chamber of Commerce, as an outdoor Christmas tree.

J. E. Townsend, chairman of the Wild Flower Show committee, asked permission to hold the annual show on April 12 and 13, as Easter falls on April 20, the original date set for the show. Permission was granted and arrangements will be made accordingly.

Senator Hurley was introduced by Vice President Jones, and he gave a very interesting speech covering the subjects of law-making and state budget.

Dan Marble was appointed to act in the capacity of membership chairman for the coming meeting of April 8. Attendance at the Tuesday luncheon shows considerable gain over that of a few weeks ago. Thirty members and six visitors were present at the last meeting.

FAMED MISSION THREATENED BY CONFLAGRATION

The historic old Mission here and the entire business district was threatened by fire, Friday morning, when the residence of M. Mendonca was completely destroyed. It is generally believed that a faulty flue in the main chimney of the house was the immediate cause.

Niles and Centerville fire departments turned out full force to render aid that proved to be invaluable, for they stopped the flames from spreading, although it was impossible to save the Mendonca home.

Woodland—C. J. Breier Company formally opened remodeled store.

EIGHTEEN SCOUTS ON WEEK-END TRIP TO MOCHO CREEK

Eighteen members of the Niles Boy Scout troop, No. 1, in charge of Scoutmaster, Marshal Green, and Assistant Scoutmaster Morrison Green, accompanied by two members of the troop committee, spent Saturday and Sunday on Mocho creek, east of Livermore.

Three members of the Centerville Scout troop were also present and participated in the pleasures of this outing. Hiking and swimming were the principal activities of the trip. The weather proved to be somewhat cold for swimming, so most of the boys, including the committeemen, took their exercise and love of sports out in hiking.

"Rookies" were initiated into the mysteries of "snipe hunting," as usual, but reported poor results due to the scarcity of "snipes" in that section of the country.

The committeemen proved adept at the art of camp cookery, and they earnestly endeavored to keep the boys' appetites satisfied, however achieving only partial success.

Outings of this sort have become a part of the monthly activities, and are proving to be a wonderful success in stimulating interest among the boys who are doing scout work. Also these affairs are bringing the boys and the committeemen in closer contact, and the individuals of the group are now looking forward eagerly to the April outing, plans for which are being made.

Party--Pekin Low-- New Suit--Fox Oakland-- Oh, Gossip--Read It Yourself

Somebody Tried to Tell About Something Without Much Success, and It's to be Hoped the Story -- Isn't "Pied" and Nobody Know Nothing. --

Whoopie!!
Well, maybe "whoopie" is passe now, but that is exactly what the office employees and correspondents of The Township Register and The Pleasanton Times are going to make next Friday night when the chief "throws" his annual party at the Pekin Low cafe in Oakland.

Of course I wouldn't have this get out for anything, but Norman H. Parks, he's the CHIEF, seeing as how he publishes The Register and The Times, is going to get high-hat and appear at the party in a new suit of clothes. Whether it will be the proverbial "soup and fish" type even WE haven't been able to learn.

But, anyhow, the Pekin Low is a high class cafe, being one of the newest and most beautiful Chinese cafes and banquet halls in Oakland.

Sure we know that's advertising, but WE are one of them that's going to be hungry, and we want Font Don, manager of Pekin Low, to be on his mettle that night and superintend the cooking of that delicious Chinese dinner, himself.

When Pekin Low picks Mr. Don for its manager, it knew what it was doing, for that gentleman knows his CAFES, and what CAFETTES like. And, Mr. Parks proved himself an epicure when he selected Pekin Low.

We are so enthused over the idea of the party that after worming the setting from the Chief, we dashed up to Oakland to see just what kind of evening we were in for, and that's how we happen to know so much about Pekin Low and Mr. Don. Pekin Low, in case you don't

WILD FLOWER SHOW HELD IN NILES ON APRIL 12TH, 13TH

Local Children To Gather Flowers of Many Varieties

Decision has been made to advance the date for the annual Wild Flower show sponsored by the Niles Chamber of Commerce. Instead of holding the show on April 19 and 20, it will be held on April 12 and 13. This change in date was also made advisable by the advanced growth of the wild flowers.

The committee in charge of plans and arrangements report that they are practically completed, and that displays of local flowers on a large scale will be made possible. Flowers are to be gathered by three distinct groups—Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, and pupils of the Niles Grammar school. A Kodak will be given as a prize to the group gathering the greatest variety of flowers from this vicinity.

There will be a parade of flower decorated doll carriages and a prize will be given for the most artistic. As a main feature of the show there will be a booth of classified flowers, and classification will be done by E. Dixon Bristow, principal of the Niles Grammar school, and the teaching staff of the school.

As an added attraction the Flower Show committee is endeavoring to secure the services of Charles Davis, of San Leandro, and have him give a talk on California wild flowers.

WITHERLY RANCH IS LOCATION FOR NEW CLUB

If plans being made are carried out the T. D. Witherly ranch, at Mission San Jose, may become the site of a country club. Mrs. J. R. Whipple, of Niles, is working to bring negotiations for this project to a successful close.

It is the desire of the prospective new owners to lay out an eighteen hole golf course and erect buildings appropriate for a country club.

The Witherly estate is one of the oldest in this territory. In earlier years it was the scene of many gay festivals, and in late years the Native Sons of the Golden West have often made it the location for their celebrations.

NILES BUSINESS MAN EXTENDS HOLDINGS

On Tuesday evening, March 25, the new Broadway theater, seating 12,000 people, in Burlingame, held its official grand opening. This theater is the tenth one now opened by Charles E. Petersen, with William Helm, who also owns and operates the Niles theatre.

A special program was presented, and speeches were made by C. A. Buck, mayor of Burlingame; Mrs. Robert McWilliams, president of Burlingame Women's club; Mrs. George Bigler, president of the North Burlingame community club, and H. E. Jenkins, president of the Burlingame Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Petersen has become successful in the show business, and is well versed in all phases of the interesting game, so called by theater folk. For twelve years he has devoted his time to operation of moving picture theaters, and before that he was a vaudeville artist, beginning his stage career at the age of six years. At various times since he has been a cornet soloist, magician, song and dance man, stock actor, and in fact just about everything. That is why he is now in a position to know what type of amusement the public really appreciates and wants.

Editor Goes Into Nose Dive.. Ears Get "the Works"

Captain Fillmore, Ex-Army Flier, Takes Parks and Narvaez for Aerial Spin Six Thousand Feet Above Mother Earth....Half Dozen Nose Dives and Several Loop-the-Loops Feature Trip....Scribe Scared but Game.....Hearing Slightly Benefitted

By NORMAN H. PARKS

I AM HERE to tell the story—the story of a flight of six thousand feet over Oakland Municipal Airport, with Captain William H. Fillmore as pilot, and Lester Narvaez as co-passenger. I am here to tell the story, and surprised that I am, because this was no ordinary adventure into the upper stratum of the air. It was not a pleasure trip, nor an outing for the thrill of the thing. I got the thrill, however—several times over—but it was necessary to a purpose I had in view when I chartered the plane.

It was five years ago that I planned this flight. Five years it has taken me to muster the courage to carry it through.

It was about that time that the first deaf person in taking a nose dive, merely for the thrill and daring connected with the thing, after reaching earth again was surprised and happily exalted to find that he experienced a remarkable improvement in hearing. The story was printed, interesting the writer, together with thousands of others similarly afflicted with chronic impairment of the auditory organ. At once every deaf person who had the courage, and could spare twenty-five or thirty dollars, went up into the sky and then dropped several thousand feet in several seconds, hoping that they, too, might have the magic wand of air space do for them what medical science so far had failed to do.

My first gesture—and it was a very weak one—occurred on the Long Beach airport field. Earl Dougherty, noted flier, and ace in the World War who had fought German planes and brought ten to the ground, and lived to tell the tale, was to be my pilot. The stage was set to go. The propeller was wound up. I started to get into the pit—and my underpinnings gave way. My nerve failed me completely.

This fiasco somewhat dampened my ardor, yet the idea still lingered in my mind. I talked about it for years—and that was all. Several weeks ago I again decided to take the plunge. Driving to the airport, I interviewed Fillmore, recommended as one of the most trust-worthy fliers on the coast. Yes, I wanted to go, but NOT TODAY. Timidity again held me. Thus the matter rested until Monday of this week, when suddenly I made up my mind to risk all on the turn of a card. I wanted some one to go with me—some powerful man who could restrain me from attempting suicide if sudden fear should impel me to jump from the plane. Right in the Register office I found that my foreman, Lester Narvaez had taken a number of flights—once dropping a thousand feet and crashing through a barn. He extracted himself from the wreckage and was ready for more. So at 4:30 we closed up the shop and drove to Oakland airport.

All afternoon the writer had been in a panic. But he was determined to try this remedy, even though death seemed a certainty. All other avenues except major operations had been closed—the country's most renowned specialists had failed—chiropractors, osteopaths, neopaths, faith healers and quacks of every sort had admitted defeat. There was nothing else left to do, for after all if we must be deaf to the end, why not make the end a rapid affair rather than drawn out to three score and ten? Thus I reasoned through the afternoon, but the old law of self-preservation kept telling me that after all things were not so bad—better stick around a while and see what in h—l was going to happen next.

Well, it was 5:45 when our party reached the field. I slumped forth with no spirit of bravado, and meeting Fillmore I candidly told him I was scared half to death, but that I was going, anyway. He tried to calm me. But to no avail. With trembling hand I drew myself into the "pit" and Narvaez after me. In a minute we were off. Ten, fifteen minutes went by. I was white to the gills—there was no doubt about it—but not in a panic. I was like a condemned man walking up the thirteen steps—I couldn't get away but was far from reconciled to death. Everything was smooth, exteriorly at any rate. We sailed over Oakland, San Leandro and Piedmont. It took us longer to get up than I had thought necessary. After ten minutes had gone by I shouted to my companion the query: "Are we about up to the six-thousand feet we had planned on going?" He dismayed me by a reply that we were not up very high yet. The scenery below had no charm for me. I looked at my pedal extremities and tried to think of the few good and noble things I had done in life. But no use. Every lapse from moral rectitude, every mean and disreputable thing that I had done in my mature life came parading by to make my mental condition an inferno. I kept silent for another ten minutes or more and then I again got the attention of Narvaez, indicating that I was ready to go down. I had no more than said it than down we went. The first drop intrigued me—thrilled me. I was calm. Then suddenly the plane banked. As quickly it shot upwards. Then down she came. This time the pilot turned the wings vertical and dropped into space for a thousand feet. Again righting the ship to a horizontal position, the pilot

TWO PICTURES OF GREAT INTEREST ON T & D SCREEN

The story that dares to be different is Fannie Hurst's "Lummox," the all-talking United Artists' drama opening Friday, April 4, at the T and D theater, Oakland.

Also of special interest will be the first talking picture of the jungle, "Up the Congo." Thirty minutes of strange and fascinating entertainment will be offered in this remarkable record of pygmies and giants, cannibals and rare animals, weird rites, conical-headed men and tattooed jungle beauties.

"Lummox" is one of the most celebrated of the Fannie Hurst novels. As a picture it is keen and vivid drama—the saga of a woman whose embrace was like a flame, yet called by men a "lummox." The title role is played by Winifred Westover. Her return to the screen after an absence of seven years is the direct result of Herbert Brennon's nation-wide search for a screen "Lummox." Believing herself to be "destined by fate" to play the part, Miss Westover won the role after a dramatic dash across the continent to enlist the author's aid in her behalf. She competed with more than 100 stage and screen stars.

SCOUT TROOP IS REPRESENTED AT HAYWARD "FEED"

Niles Boy Scout troop, No. 1, was well represented at the annual Father and Sons banquet held at Burbank school, Hayward, Monday, March 31. This affair was sponsored by the Scout Leaders Association of Southern Alameda county.

After a delicious and well-served meal a program, consisting of stunts presented by various Scout troops, was given. Several brief speeches were also made by scout officials. A thoroughly good time was reported by those who attended.

The following named represented the Niles troop at the banquet: A. M. Alves, John McGowan, J. Gelb, Marshall Green, Everett Mendenhall, E. C. Brinkmeyer, John Habenicht, Morrison Green, Frank Ferry, J. E. Townsend and Jackson Townsend.

MACMARR STORES INCREASE SINCE MERGER IN 1929

Organization Now Numbers Establishments In Ten Different States

During 1929, more than $12,000,000 worth of produce was bought from western growers by the MacMarr Stores.

This, and many other interesting figures on this chain grocery company operating stores in Niles and Pleasanton, are included in the official report issued this week.

In addition to the farm produce bought by the company, the MacMarr organization also purchased huge quantities of butter and other dairy products, direct from the producers.

The report states that the MacMarr Stores were organized early in 1929 as a merger of about 25 smaller chains established throughout the eleven western states. There are now 1400 stores, 400 meat markets, and 21 warehouses and plants in the MacMarr organization, serving California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Arizona, New Mexico, Wyoming, Colorado and Nebraska.

The MacMarr Stores buy direct from producers wherever possible and sell direct to the public, thus making possible a considerable savings to their customers. This saving amounted to $5,000,000 according to conservative estimates.

Wherever a MacMarr Store is located, the company joins the local chamber of commerce and urges the store manager and supervisor to become members of service clubs, improvement bodies and other local activities. The company is entirely in the west and is interested solely in the upbuilding of the western country.

Riverside County will surface six miles of Winchester-Temecula highway.

FIRE RUINS QUARTERS OF DENTIST

Gasoline Blow Torch Sets Pleasanton Doctor's Office Ablaze

Fire caused by a gasoline blow torch in the laboratory of Dr. D. H. McLaughlin's office in the New Lincoln theater building Pleasanton, caused damage estimated at close to $1,000, last Friday afternoon. The quick action of Andrew Jorgensen and Sam Elliot with hand chemicals prevented possible greater damage.

The estimated loss was about equally divided between the building and Dr. McLaughlin's equipment. The torch caught fire and the gasoline from it caused the entire interior of the laboratory to burst into a hot smoking blaze. Had the building not been of fire proof construction, it is believed that the entire structure would have gone up in flames.

Chemicals Stop Fire
By the time the fire wagons arrived on the scene, Jorgensen and Elliott had stopped the spreading of the flames. The dentist's laboratory was ruined by the flames and his consulting room was badly damaged by the smoke and chemicals.

Insurance fully covered the loss to the building, according to Chas. Chicazola, owner. Dr. McLaughlin did not carry fire insurance, it was said. Repairs to the building will be started immediately.

Dr. McLaughlin plans to reopen his office as soon as the quarters have been remodeled and his equipment replaced, which will be within the next week or ten days.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS WILL PRESENT PLAY OF EARLY DAYS

Members of the Senior class of Washington Union High school, will present their annual class play on or after May 15. Miss Aubrey Nicely, English instructor, will direct the student actors.

This play is to be entirely different from any presented at the school before. The early days of California, with missions, gold mining, dashing caballeros, seductive señoritas, and festivals, will go toward making the play one of the most interesting entertainments ever presented in this locality.

Costumes and settings will be elaborate masterpieces of beauty and art dating back to the bygone periods of early California, if the combined labor and effort of the Senior group proves to be successful. This play will not be a farce, as most of the previous plays have been. It should be of great interest to the people of this community, for Washington township is one of the oldest, and has made real California history, a deal of which will enter into the play. One place of interest is the old Mission San Jose, taking its place proudly in the annals of the state, as one of the first and most generally known edifices of worship and protection. On account of this the public should find more than ordinary enjoyment in the unfolding of the plot as it is acted by the local girls and boys.

Following is the cast of the play:

Father Serra—Howard Overacker.

Father Crespi—Vernon Rose.
Don Pedro Pages—Otello Belini.

Dona Eulalia—Marie White.
Pedrito—Joe Faria.

Dona Elena Pages—Elizabeth Shinn.

Don Vincente—Eugene Dusterberry.

Captain De Alvarado—George Robinson.

Dona Dolores De Alvarado—Mary George.

Captain Martinez—Maurice Silva.

Ignacio—Edward Wargin.

Miguel—Ed. Witherly.

Diego—Jimmy Logan.

Juan—Alvin Gomes.

Maria—LaVon Molter.

Evangelista—Aurelie Antron.

Lolita—Gertrude Ellsworth.

Maha—Masaho Sekigahama.

Felipa—Robbin Trask.

Luissa—Lois Abbott.

Felipe—Raymond Crane.

It is expected that the play will be a complete success for the students are giving their director, Miss Nicely, their most earnest co-operation. Miss Nicely directed the student body play, which was presented at mid-year and the results were most commendable.

"Chicago Election"

Members of the student body of Washington Union High school are beginning to excite interest in the annual election of student officers. Already six petitions have been submitted, and more are to be turned in soon.

It is expected that the election this year will be of great interest, and it was reported that members of the school are anticipating a regular "Chicago election."

"W" Club Initiation

If a stranger visited at the Washington Union High school Tuesday, April 1, upon entering the building he might have received a shock. Some of the most beautiful girls ever seen at a distance were parading up and down the halls, and really some of the exterior decorations on their faces were pure works of art. Eyebrows, beautifully penciled into perfect arches, lips carmined to the last degree, cheeks that glowed like nobody's business, long curls, permanent waves and what not; short skirts, long skirts, in every style and color. That is what the Register reporter saw, and upon seeing, rubbed her eyes to make sure she was getting the proper focus for such scenery. The picture was wrong somehow. Most of the Washington girls aren't tall, not six feet, anyhow, and they are more conservative with their make-up.

Having stood the sight as long as possible, and knowing for a certainty that there must be some explanation for such unusual goings-on, the reporter took herself to the office, where she received the following information:

Members of the "W" Club of Washington Union High school who were admitted at the end of the 1929 football season, were initiated Tuesday, April 1, and the program which followed was comical, to say the least. The boys were dressed in girls' clothing entirely, and in that costume attended classes, appearing like that all day. The older members of the club seemed to delight in combining April Fool's day with their initiation ceremonies, and the result was surely entertaining.

CHAMBER MEMBERS HEAR ABOUT SALT WATER QUESTION

Dr. John L. Beard Illustrates Interesting Talk With Charts

Dr. John L. Beard, health officer of Contra Costa county, was chief speaker at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Centerville Chamber of Commerce, held at the El Lido Cafe, on March 27. The subject of Dr. Beard's talk was the salt water barrier, which has been the cause of much discussion between those interested in stopping the salt water from backing up into the San Joaquin valley; flooding river bottoms and delta lands. He illustrated the points of his narrative with a colored chart, or map, that was interesting and educational.

Dr. G. S. Holman, chairman of the committee for raising Centerville's quota for sending the Washington Union High school band to the state competition in Sacramento, reported that great progress was being made.

Judge Allen G. Norris was appointed to act as chairman for the meeting of April 4. Thirty-five men were present at the luncheon, and guests were A. J. Petsche, new Pacific Gas and Electric Company manager for the township with offices in Niles; Mr. Lucio, of San Leandro, and Mr. Haley, of San Jose.

F. T. Dusterberry, president of the chamber, reported that at the next meeting Sheriff M. Driver and Mr. Springer, undersheriff, would be guests.

Mrs. T. E. Chadbourne spent several days in Stockton, recently, visiting friends.

COMPLETE PLANS TO BE SUBMITTED FOR I. O. O. F. HALL

Definite plans for construction of a new Odd Fellows hall in Niles are expected to be announced at an early date. Members of the lodge have come to the conclusion that a new building is at last necessary, but have not reached a decision regarding its location.

One plan is to build on property owned by the Odd Fellows, on Second street, and the other is to move the present hall from its site on Main street, to Second street so that the new building may face on the principal thoroughfare.

George Ellenger, architect retained by the Odd Fellows, has been authorized by them to draw plans and submit specifications, which will be passed upon presentation if satisfactory.

For some time the ways and means committee of the Odd Fellows have been conferring and working for the completion of preliminary arrangements.

TREE PLANTING EXERCISE HELD BY SUNOL P. T. A.

The Sunol Glen Parent-Teachers' Association held its Tree Planting exercise Tuesday afternoon, March 25. The Pleasanton High School band co-operating with the Sunol Glen band played several selections for the occasion. Harry Tripp, music director, conducted the bands, and much credit is due him, the P. T. A. members declare.

George Richards, principal of the Sunol Glen school, gave a short talk on the value of trees. He also commended the P. T. A. for its work in beautifying the school grounds for the benefit of the children. In concluding he presented the tree to the school, dedicating it to the school trustees who were in office and helped during the time the new school was planned.

At that time the trustees were A. W. Ebright, A. C. Day, and M. Frager. Mr. Day accepted the tree and thanked the P. T. A. for its aid and loyalty.

Mrs. C. H. West, president, put the first shovelful of dirt around the tree for the P. T. A. as donors. After the talks were completed the Toy band, consisting of the pupils in the First, Second and Third grades, rendered a selection.

The tree, a beautiful Coast Redwood, typical of California, was planted at the north end of the school building where it should grow to a ripe old age. After the tree planting exercises were concluded, the president of the P. T. A. invited the guests to remain for the regular monthly session. A large number accepted the invitation and further enjoyed the program of the organization.

William Hughes spent a few days this week with friends and relatives in San Mateo.

Mrs. Victor Johnson and Mrs. H. Payne were in Livermore visiting with friends on Wednesday.

OFFICERS SELECTED

Several visitors were entertained at the regular meeting of the Sunol Glen P. T. A. Tuesday, due to the tree planting exercise held previous to the meeting. The nominating committee handed in its report containing a list of new officers which was accepted and all were unanimously elected.

The new officers who will be installed are Mrs. H. A. Johnson, president; Mrs. C. H. West, vice-president; Mrs. C. Carr, secretary; Mrs. A. C. Day, treasurer; George Richards, parliamentarian; Mrs. John Trimmingham, historian; and Mrs. George Roraback and Mrs. Anton Silver, delegates.

ENTERTAINS STUDENTS

Miss Molly Buttner, librarian at the Sunol branch of the Alameda county library, as host to forty graduate students of Mills College and the University of California, at luncheon Tuesday. The students are making a visit to the various libraries of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer made a business trip to Livermore Wednesday.

Mrs. H. A. Johnson spent a part of Wednesday in Pleasanton on business.

Mrs. M. Ebright and Mrs. E. C. Apperson attended a theater performance in Livermore Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Harry Harrison was called to Oakland this week by the serious illness of her husband. Mr. Harrison has been confined to an Oakland hospital for more than a week. He had expected to return home this week, but because of a relapse will be forced to spend several more days in the hospital.

Harry Gibson, of Los Angeles, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Joslin. Mr. Gibson intends making his home around this district.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Knight and two children have moved into the house recently vacated by Earl Dixon on the Niles canyon road.

PLEASANTON ELECTION TO BE HOTLY FOUGHT

From three candidates, electors of Pleasanton will select two councilmen for full four-year terms at the municipal election to be held Monday, April 14. With the closing date for candidates to file last Tuesday, it was revealed by City Clerk C. Letham, that Mayor A. B. Pickard, Councilman Frank Garatti, and J. J. Amaral had filed for the office.

Mayor Pickard and Councilman Garatti are seeking re-election. Amaral is making his second race for a councilmanic position. He made the race at the last election against R. W. Apperson, P. C. Madsen, Thomas J. Orloff and J. W. Sheffield, being defeated by Apperson, Madsen and Orloff.

While rumor had it last week that there would be a dark horse candidate enter the field at the last minute, it was given the lie when 12 o'clock noon passed on Tuesday, March 25, without other than the three above mentioned candidates filing.

Considering registration in Pleasanton which is approximately 95 percent of the actual estimated electorate, according to Clerk Letham, great interest is being taken in this year's councilmanic election. Politicians are openly predicting the re-election of both Mayor Pickard and Councilman Garatti. The candidates themselves are all confident of election.

Maywood—Ground broken for construction of two-story apartment building at 57th and Gifford streets, at estimated cost of $25,000.

MORE ON High School

girls are named in the following list:

Manuel Fontes, Tony Caldeira, Harold Faria, Sidney Lawlor, Eugene Dusterberry, LeRoy Murphy, Storm Tanigawa, Robert Wright, Leland Silva, Ray Secada, Manuel Brown, Howard Overacker, Frank Mattos, Jack Cahill, Clarence Pine, Ernest Garcia, Clarence Soito, Melvin Teeter and Edward Barnard.

Sports Increase.

Sport activities are again to the forefront at the High school. Recently a baseball game was played at Berkeley High school, and Washington players were defeated with a final score showing eleven to five. The game was played much closer than this indicates, for the Berkeley boys burst out in one of the last innings with five home-runs, and that is a lot of runs for any team to battle against.

Last Friday, March 28, the Washington team played against the Alameda High school on the opposing team's home field.

The score was six to nothing, when Washington players held a batting rally, and tied the score. One run was made in the eighth inning, but they could not succeed in holding the Alameda players down. One player, Manuel Amaral, succeeded in making a very brilliant and sensational play when he caught a fly ball, slipped, turned completely over, and got on his feet, retaining the ball throughout.

The girls' speedball championship game was played off last week between the second period team, captained by Agatha Willis, and third period team, captained by Aldina Perry. The score was tied, so to all appearances another deciding game will be called for at an early date.

An interclass track meet was held Monday, March 31, and it developed into a contest between the Sophomore and Senior classes, the Junior and Freshmen being left far behind in the competition.

hours each week

Plenty of hot water at the turn of a faucet helps you finish the housework more quickly. You save many precious minutes in doing each task. In a week, you'll have 4 to 6 hours more time to give to the children, to go motoring or to go shopping.

Automatic Gas Water Heater Operates for Lowest Cost per Gallon.

With the automatic gas water heater, a thermostat turns the gas on and off and keeps the water hot, day and night. At any moment, one can have a basinful or a tubful of hot water. No gas is wasted keeping the water hot; the water stays hot because the boiler is insulated.

After once enjoying the convenience of an automatic gas water heater, you would never do without it.

GAS MAY 15

P. G. & E. Workmen Near Completion of Main Pipe Lines

May 15 is the date now set for the beginning of natural gas service in Pleasanton, according to an announcement made this week by the Pacific Gas & Electric Company, which holds the franchise to serve Pleasanton with gas as granted last year by city council.

Workmen will begin laying mains in Pleasanton this week, and as soon as the work is completed and the connections made with the mains now under construction between Sunol and Patterson Pass, the fuel will be ready for consumption here.

Laying 22-Inch Main

The P. G. & E. is laying a 22-inch gas main between Sunol and Patterson Pass. This main will supply the gas for the serving of the entire extreme southern end of Alameda county.

Workmen resumed their labors on the mains this week after having been delayed because of wet ground and other hindrances imposed by Mother Nature.

The crew of workmen are now laboring in Livermore, having completed their work from the camp near Tracy. It is expected that the mains will be completed by May 1, and that Livermore will have gas by that date.

In Pleasanton May 15

Service in Pleasanton will be established shortly after that, provided the weather keeps good and the gangs are able to work steady the gas will be available here May 15.

The Pacific Gas & Electric Company is making preparations for opening a salesroom, where residents of Pleasanton may see the various models of gas ranges. Other stores in Pleasanton also will stock gas stoves within the near future.

SCREEN FRIDAY

The Sunnyside of love and laughter comes to the Fox Oakland theater Friday with "High Society Blues," the newest starring picture for Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell.

Another all-talking Fox Movie-tone delight is offered in this successor to "Sunny Side Up." The two sweethearts were poor for a long long time. Then Farrell became a young millionaire and because of it had a hard time marrying Janet. Now it's the red-headed Janet's turn to be rich. And rich she is in this story of a young debutante who falls in love with a penniless but charming youth.

Long skirts or short? Fanchon and Marco deftly present both sides of the question in their modish and clever "Skirts Idea," the coming stage revue. The Sunkist Beauties in a tricky dance on stilts, the performance of Julia Curtiss, ventriloquist, Neil Castagnoli's sensational saxophone numbers and Hermie King's music will be highlights of the presentation.

Miss Welta Dahl, of Hayward, was a visitor in Niles, Saturday.

TWO COUNTS ARE LODGED AGAINST MEN

Lynch Must Face Counts
In Pleasanton Justice Courts

Charges of assault with a deadly weapon and disturbing the peace are faced by Ray Lynch in two courts of Pleasanton, according to police records. Lynch was arrested by city authorities on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon Tuesday after such a complaint had been sworn to by Tony Fernandes. Later in the same day he was arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace on a complaint sworn to by John Maderios in Judge P. C. Quinn's court.

Lynch was released on $1,000 cash bail from the city court as set by Judge Wm. T. Davis, and on a $10 bail set in Judge Quinn's court. He is to plead to the charges next Tuesday.

According to information given to police Lynch shot at Fernandes on the night of March 16. Fernandes declares that he called at the M. Amaro home, where Lynch is living to visit with some friends and that after calling out who he was and whom he wanted, alleges that Lynch shot at him with a revolver.

Lynch on the other hand claims Fernandes was attempting to crawl into the Amaro house by way of a window and that he thought Fernandes was a burglar.

The disturbing of the peace charge is said to have been the result of threats made by Lynch when he encountered Maderios, on the street and mistook him for Fernandes.

FARM BUREAU HAS FULL DAY PRO RAM TODAY

Pleasanton People Invited To Attend Livermore Gathering

W. T. Martindale, of Indiana, has been chosen as the principal speaker at the meeting which is being held under the auspices of the California Farm Bureau at Livermore today, (April 3), at the Forester's Hall.

"The National Farm Problem," is the title of his address which will be delivered at 2:15 in the afternoon. During his speech the doors of the hall will be closed to prevent any interruption caused by people entering, according to Walter Block, who has charge of the arrangements.

"This talk is very simple and interesting if you get Martindale's introduction," Block stated, "but it is merely a lot of uncorrelated figures if you enter during the discussion."

The meeting is to begin at 9:30 a. m. and will continue throughout the day. Adjournment is expected at 4 p. m. It is being held primarily for the benefit of Farm Bureau members and representatives of the insurance department, particularly the afternoon session.

MORE ON Editor Goes Into

took altitude and without warning tipped the opposite wing earthward and shot through space for another thousand feet. There was method in Fillmore's madness. No desire to show off to the crowd below who was watching the aerial "circus" with intense interest. The purpose was to force the powerful air current first in the right ear and then into the left, with a force that could not have been accomplished with a straight drop. Several times the plane looped-the-loop. This I was blissfully ignorant of, for I was concerned only in holding on, and praying that before another age passed into eternity I would be again walking on good old mother earth, and deaf though I might be, it was a pretty good world after all, and I didn't want to leave it right then. Engrossed in these thoughts and clinging to the holding rod in front of me like a shipwrecked sailor clutching a floating log with a death-grip, Fillmore shouted: "Now I am going to give you the works." And say, dear reader, it was the "works." It was worse than that. It was terrible. Three thousand feet we shot like a stone hurled from a catapult. The engine seemed to die. Seconds were like ages. With a swiftness that was appalling, we went down like a sky-rocket shot to earth. I pinched my leg to see if in truth I was still alive, or actually bound, as I felt, for hell. Dust and grease came pouring through the floor of the plane, and the air pressure seemed to stop the heart-beat—the whole thing a horrible nightmare! Yet I was conscious of all that was going on. With a tenseness that all but paralyzed the lungs, I waited for the plane to crash to earth. Would it never crash to earth. Would it never stop racing down, down, through endless space? I felt like hours went by. And then, faintly my brain began to think clearly and I realized with joy that the plane was traveling smoothly. But I was still apprehensive—waiting, bracing myself for another drop, and another strain that I was not sure that I could stand and remain conscious. And just then Narvaez tapped me on the shoulder and said, "Boss, it's all over." Peering over the side of the plane we saw the smiling, but rather wan face of our good wife—which never looked quite so good before—and by her side were the reporters from the Register and Times offices—Virginia Burrington and LaMoine Clark, relieved, too, that there had been no casualty in the adventure.

Say, it was a wonderful feeling to be back on solid ground!

And the reader is wondering—and other deaf people are impatient to know—whether the trip was a success.

Immediately upon alighting from the airship, we felt no pain or other sensation in the ears. Apparently, the air current had made no impression on the calloused crums. The Eustachian tubes had not been affected, and so far as we could sense our hearing was identically the same as before the flight. Contrary to my expectations, I got out of the plane in perfect condition from a nerve standpoint. No bad after-effects. The next day I noticed a slight improvement in my hearing. By Wednesday night it was even better. Whether this little improvement will last a few days, several months, permanently, time, of course, only will tell.

We are glad we went. We conquered fear. That alone was worth the price and the strain. It was our first time in the air. It is very rare, I am told, that anyone on the first flight goes through aerial stunts of the nature of which Fillmore took the writer and Narvaez. Usually, the passenger is prepared gradually for the terrific strain of stunt flying.

We took the "whole works" on the initial trip and there is nothing new that a pilot can now offer us. We went the limit. We saw—we conquered!

And for the present, at least, terra firma for us!
